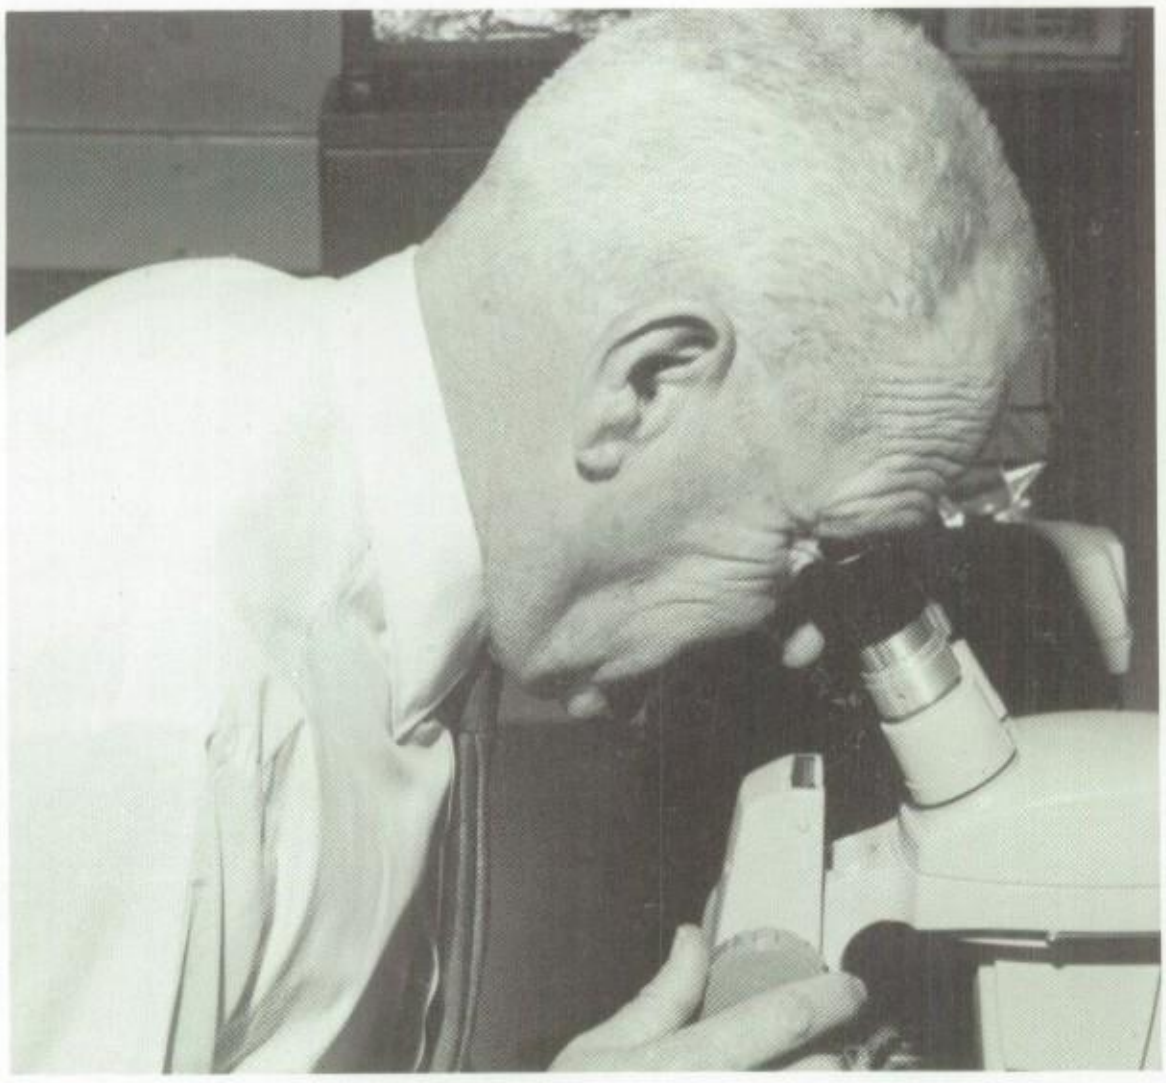
Class of 1971
Groveton High School
Groveton, New Hampshire

In Memoriam



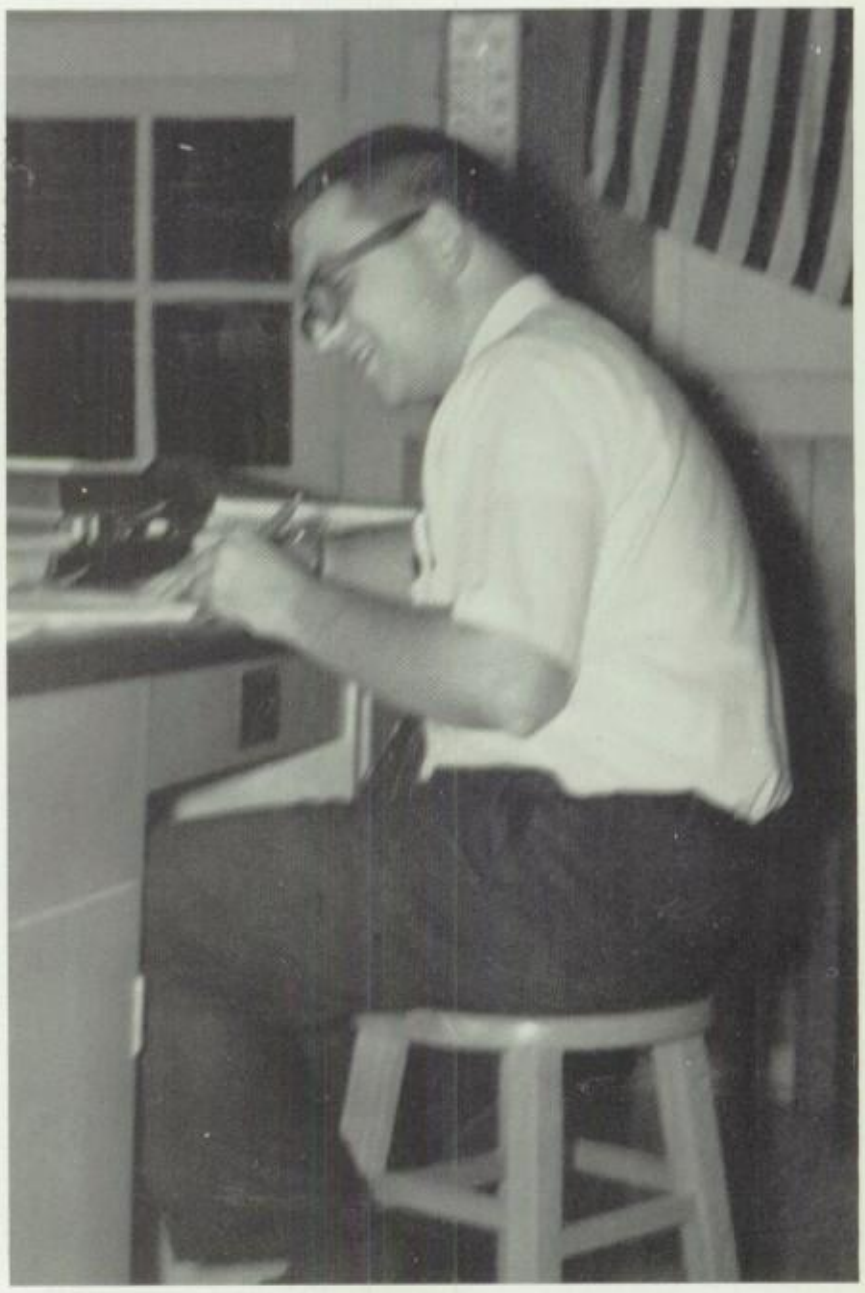
We offer this portion of our yearbook in memory of Mr. Hollis F. Sawyer. We do this not because it is expected of us, but because we want to express our true admiration and respect for a man who added much to Groveton High School.

We will never forget Mr. Sawyer's stern but gentle nature. We look back and enjoy our memories of Mr. Sawyer and only wish that those of you who did not know him, could have.

Hollis F. Sawyer

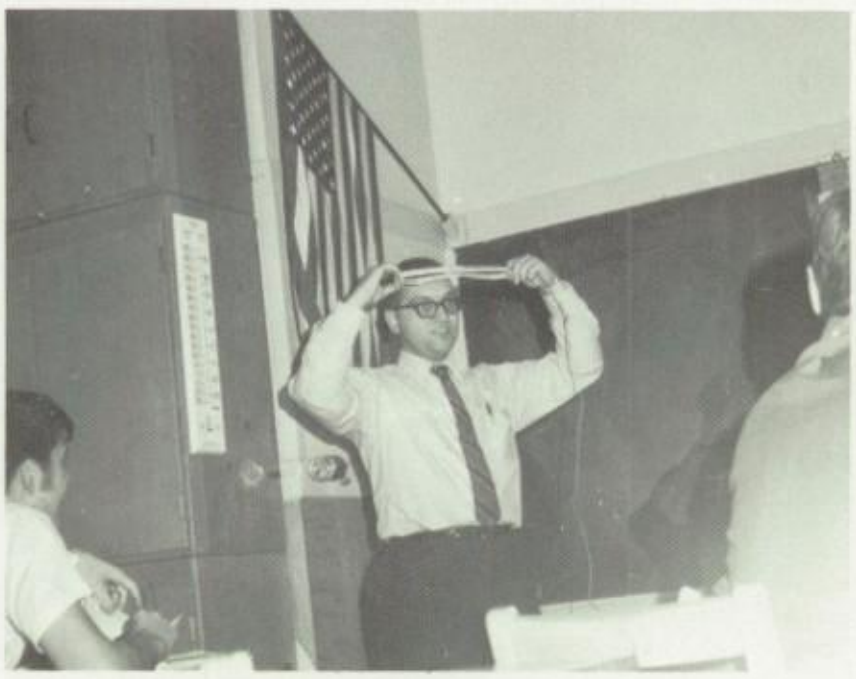
Dedication

Mr. Richard P. Merrill



We, the Class of 1971, as a group of individuals consider our yearbook as our one true accomplishment. This is the one effort that brought us together to work as a single unit. We dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Merrill, in thanks for all the understanding and encouragement that you gave us. We hope that this yearbook shows but a small part of our admiration and thanks to a wonderful man.

Thank you, Mr. Merrill.



Superintendent Alan Rich

"Nothing that was worthy in the past departs; no truth or goodness realized by man ever dies, or can die; but is still here, and,
recognized or not, lives and works through endless changes."

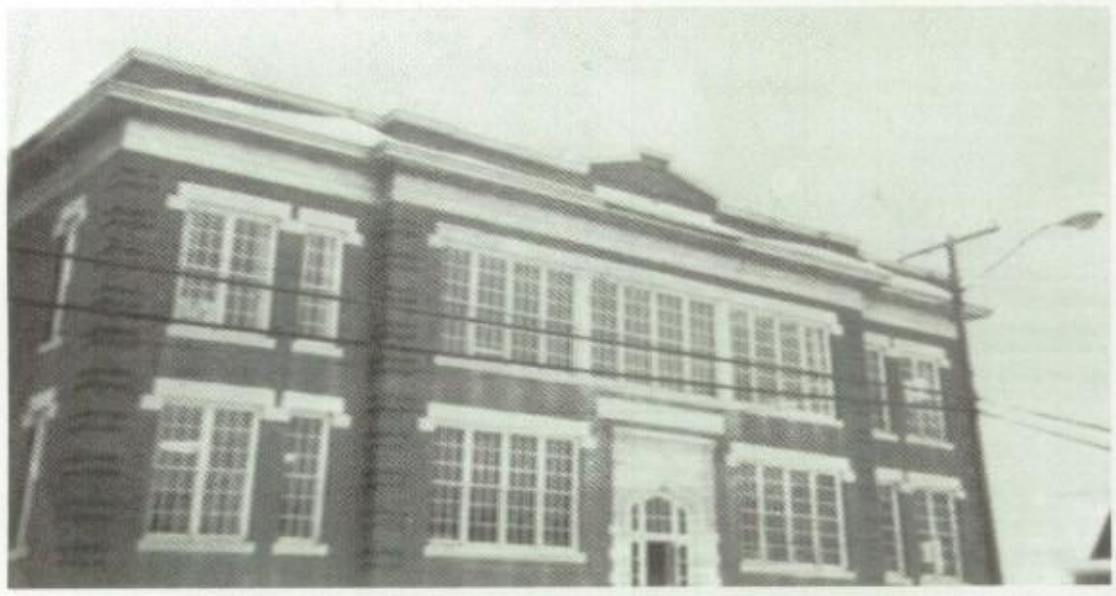
Thomas Carlyle

Principal Donald F. Dimick

Commencement is defined as a beginning. As you leave Groveton High School we hope that you will begin to apply your knowledge to meet life's challenges and therefore become respected and responsible citizens of your community, your state, and the nation. Dr. John G. Hibben, former President of Princeton University, once said: "Education is the ability to meet life's situations."

Foreword



The class of 1971 leaves G. H. S. with many memories, both good and bad. The good times will never be forgotten and even the bad times are worth remembering.

We are a group of individuals not following in the place of others, but each seeking a place of his own.

We only hope that we can look back knowing we have done our best and look ahead knowing we will try our best.

ABSENT: Rebecca Hersom, Jane Hopps, Barbara Fogg, Richard Gilbert, Peter Ladd, Thomas Styles, Mildred Westover, Adviser - Miss Kelley.

Class Will

I, Willaim Astle, do bequeath my tidy desk and one dead fish to good ole Mr. Merrill.

I, Ann Auger, do bequeath my temper, my love for tour directors, and my ability to get involved with Butch, Bill, Jim, Ronnie, Joel, Gerry, Kent, John, Howie, Sundance, and Jake all at the same time and come out of it with a straight head to anyone who dares to try it. Good luck, because it just doesn't work!

I, Sharan Bartlett, do bequeath my large stack of books to my sister Charlene.

I, Judy Bedell, do bequeath my ability to get at least half of my mom's determination to my sister Jo-Ann and to anyone else who'd like to challenge it.

I, Betty Ann Bigelow, do bequeath the memories of the turtles to anyone who can stand the consequences.

I, Norman Boivin, do bequeath my unpolished shoes to anyone who can stand to wear them. Good luck in trying to do it.

I, Ronald Boivin, do bequeath my time in the afternoon to anybody who can take the hard work.

I, James Bronson, do bequeath my ability to mix people up to anybody who can straighten them out afterward. Have fun and good luck; you'll need it.

I, Robert Cotter, do bequeath my chores to my brother Maurice. Have fun brother.

I, Geneva Devost, do bequeath my good humor and ability to run the halls of G.H.S. without a pass to Mike Higgins. Beware!

I, Tyrone Deyette, do bequeath my good luck to David Cloutier because he needs it. Good luck, Dave.

I, Alice Dresser, do bequeath my good times in Lancaster to my brother Brian. Have fun, Brian!

I, Cathy Drew, do bequeath my strength in Phys. Ed. to Neill Frizzell if he thinks he can pick up where I left off.

I, Barbara Fogg, do bequeath my ability to get along with teachers to Lisa, my outgoing nature to Danny, and my chair in Mr. Dimick's office to Dougie, who'll be there anyway.

I, Donna Forbush, do bequeath my loyalty to car Number 56 to Reggie McLain (it's a great car; right, Reg?), my long fingernails to Mary Irwin and Valerie McVetty (fight over 'em, girls!), my ability to get along with most teachers to my cousin Mark, and some of my "bright ideas" to David Peaslee, who seems to have enough of his own.

I, Wendy Fournier, do bequeath all my good times as a senior to my brother Lennie and the different letters written on the ends of my baton to Vangie Platt. Remember to change them every week, Vangie!

I, Doug Frizzell, do bequeath myself to anyone insane enough to put up with me.

I, Larry Frizzell, do bequeath my father's Volkswagen and the second credit card to him. I shouldn't be needing them in college.

I, Janice Gadwah, do bequeath my ability to type for three different teachers and get it done in one day to Gail, Jean, Darlene, and Joanne. You'll need it.

I, Richard Gilbert, do bequeath the ability to stay in school as long as I have and to become the only person to get an old age pension by doing it to my brother Mike. Go to it, Guy!

I, Harold Gonyer, do bequeath my ability to walk around school without passes to anyone who thinks he can do it without getting caught.

I, Royden Hart, do bequeath nothing to Rod, Mad, Bob, Dana, Mike, Paul, and Val because they aren't worth anything.

I, Rebecca Hersom, do bequeath all my good times at G.H.S. to my sister Kathi, to my brothers Craig and Nathan, and to Jennifer, who has a few years to go.

I, James Hickey, do bequeath my fantastic ability to drive to my brother Randy. Good luck, kid.

I, Rebecca Hodge, do bequeath to Kathleen Simino my entire penny collection so that she will at least have some "cents."

I, Sara Holroyd, do bequeath my ability to get along with every one of my teachers to my sister Carol. Good luck luck, kid!

I, Jane Hopps, do bequeath my ability to fight to anyone who can survive it.

I, Brian Hurlbutt, do bequeath my ability in basketball to Mike Moffet who is in dire need of it.

I, Carol Ingerson, do bequeath my ability to get in trouble to anyone who can hack it. Good luck; you'll need it.

I, Bradley Jewell, do bequeath all my good times and getting into trouble and finding a way out to Ron-Ron, Jr., and to my brother Curt.

I, Tim Kingston, do bequeath my ability not to study from seventh to twelfth grade and still pass to anyone who is stupid enough to try it.

I, Pete Ladd, do bequeath myself to anyone who will have me.

I, Nancy Lang, do bequeath living extremely close to school and still managing to be late to Betsy Brann and my blushing problem to anyone who has Mr. Merrill next year for homeroom. He will help the situation a great deal.

I, Paula LeClaire, do bequeath my every minute moods and stubborness to my sister Lisa, who really doesn't need them.

I, Susan Martin, do bequeath my long hair to Ray, who thinks he would like to give the girls some competition.

I, Harley Mason, do bequeath all of my ex-parking places to Charlie McMann and my driving record and speeding tickets to Larry Hand.

I, Wayne McLain, do bequeath all my fun and all my troubles (very little) at G.H.S. to Sherry Scott. Have fun, but try to keep out of trouble. Tood luck.

I, Stephen McMann, do bequeath my baritone, music, music stand, and chair to any underclassman who wants to make beautiful music and my plastic, precision brand, $1.98 slide rule to Mr. Merrill to prove to him that it is as accurate as his $30 one.

I, Richard Montgomery, do bequeath G.H.S. to anyone who can stand it.

I, Linda Muise, do bequeath my alarm clock to my brother Don, who always has it anyway, and my good disposition to my sister Cathy, who is in desperate need of it.

I, Donna Newton, do bequeath my quick temper to my sister Neva; hope you can handle it better than I.

I, Debra Parks, do bequeath to my brother Greg all my arguments with my father. Have fun and don't give up.

I, David Peel II, do bequeath my ability to sleep in Calculus and to stand the ranking afterwards to anyone who is stupid enough to take it.

I, Deborah Pepau, do bequeath my seat in the morning on the Stark bus to whoever can find it, remember where it is, and save it for one person only to have someone else (whom you don't want to offend) sit with you.

I, Risa Lynn Potter, do bequeath candlelight dinners and "Scarborough Fair" to those who understand.

I, Doris Russ, do bequeath my trademark to anyone who has the time and patience to put up with it and my height to anyone who can stand all the names that go with it.

I, Allen Stanton, do bequeath my fantastic ability to play chess to anyone who thinks he can handle it.

I, Joy Stearns, do bequeath those long bus rides to my brother Philip. I hope you have as much fun as I did.

I, Linda Stoddard, do bequeath my sound mind and body to my sister Nancy, who needs a little of both.

I, Tom Styles, do bequeath to my brother Jim and all the people of G.H.S. all the luck in the world to obtain in life what they want.

I, Michael Swift, do bequeath my ability to spend more time in the office than in the classroom to anyone who wants it.

I, Holly Tetreault, do bequeath my nickname ("Legs") to Bob because I think he looks great in shorts.

I, Mark Vaillancourt, do bequeath all my hitchhiking trips to and from Berlin to anyone who can do as well as I did.

I, Millie Westover, do bequeath my walk to anyone who thinks he could do it better than I.

I, Mary Wilford, do bequeath my love for basketball to Linda Simonds, and my great expectations to "A better way than THIS" to any seventh grader who can hack six more years! Good luck, you lucky creatures!

I, Richard Wilson, do will and bequeath to any deserving person my ability to skip school and get caught every time.

I, Greg Young, do bequeath my patience to stay in Groveton to Kim Wiles. You'll need it!

I, Thomas Young II, do bequeath my memories of the legendary and now extinct Snakepit III to big John, whose memories are greater than mine.

I, Bonnie Zimmerman, do bequeath to Flourence Simon Groveton High School and all of its boring classes. Good luck, Flourence.

Class History

In September, 1965, we, the Class of 1971, entered G.H.S. After several days of wandering through endless halls and seeing countless faces, we finally discovered our way around.

We held our first class meeting on September 21, 1965. At this meeting we elected our class officers: Captain, Linda Muise; First Mate, Tim Kingston; Keeper of the Ship's Log, Steve Micucci; Guard of the Treasure, Mary Wilford; and Navigator, Larry Frizzell. Chosen to represent us at the Council of Naval Operations were Barb Fogg and Douglass Potter.

In January, 1966, we chose for our winter carnival candidate Paula LeClaire. We found the winter carnival, which was centered around "The Land of Make-Believe," to be a new and exciting experience. After five more trying months we ended our first year at G.H.S.

The first order of business upon returning the next year was the designing and ordering of our class banner and class emblems. The design that was chosen was the work of Tyrone Deyette. Also at this time we chose our class officers for the year. Linda Muise was again elected as our class president; Mike Swift, vice president; Paula LeClaire, secretary; Mary Wilford, treasurer; and Larry Frizzell was again chosen as our class marshal. Student Council representatives were Barb Fogg and Wendy Fournier.

The winter carnival this year, "The World of Disney," proved again to be an exciting experience. Nancy Lang represented us as princess candidate.

Upon entering our freshman year we really began to feel a part of G.H.S., mainly because of several things which happened, including: the choosing of courses which would prepare us for the future; the choosing of our class rings, which gave us a new sense of pride in attending G.H.S.; and the big thrill of being initiated by the sophomore class.

To lead us through our freshman year we again chose Linda Muise to be our president; Tim Kingston, vice president; Paula LeClaire, secretary; Mary Wilford, treasurer; and Karyn O'Brien, class marshal. Barb Fogg was again chosen, along with Randy Dupuis, as student council representatives.

For the winter carnival, which was entitled "The World of Peanuts," we chose Barb Fogg as our princess candidate. Despite high hopes and hard work we finished only as first runner-up.

At the first meeting of our sophomore year we chose our class officers to guide us through the year. Linda Muise once again was elected president; Barb Fogg was elected vice president; Paula LeClaire, secretary; Mary Wilford, treasurer; Nancy Lang, class marshal; and Sandy Potter and Paula LeClaire as student council representatives. This was our year to let our feelings of revenge for the class of 1970 show through. Tom Young was elected as our initiation committee chairman and everyone had a great time watching the poor freshmen suffer.

In January, 1969, we elected Becky Hodge as our queen candidate for the winter carnival. The theme this year was "The Land of Oz."

The next order of business was to discuss our Junior Harvest Ball. Nancy Lang and Doug Frizzell were chosen chairmen and "Fantasy of the Sea" was selected as the theme.

To start off our junior year we chose the following to head our class: President, Barb Fogg; Vice President, Paula LeClaire; Secretary, Becky Hodge; Treasurer, Bill Astle; Class Marshal, Nancy Lang; and Student Council Representatives, Linda Muise and Sandy Potter.

At our next meeting we chose our committeemen for the winter carnival and elected Sandy Potter as queen candidate to represent us in the carnival, "The Age of Zodiac."

As the year came to a close we elected our Seniorian staff for our Senior year. Linda Muise was elected editor-in-chief and David Peel as assistant editor. Others elected to the staff were: Nancy Lang, art editor; Paula LeClaire, photography editor; Barb Fogg, literary editor; Millie Westover, girl's sports editor; Brian Hurlbutt, boy's sports editor; Holly Tetreault, copy editor; Becky Hodge, sales editor; Bill Astle, advertising; and Steve McMann, treasurer.

Beginning our Senior year, we elected our officers as follows: President, Barb Fogg; Vice President, Bill Astle; Secretary, Becky Hodge; Treasurer, Dave Peel; and to lead us down the aisle on our final day, Nancy Lang. Millie Westover and Sara Holroyd were elected student council representatives.

With the ordering of our announcements we had to choose our class motto and flower. Our choice for the motto was: "We go out into the world as unknowns - to know ourselves and to be known to others," an original written by Sandy Potter. We voted to have blue and white roses for our class flowers.

We attacked the winter carnival of 1971 with new spirit and high hopes. Our candidate this year, to compete in the carnival entitled "The World of Sports," was Becca Hersom. We again came in as first runner-up and although we never won, we enjoyed every carnival and each brought the class together as a body.

By sending in our final deadline for the yearbook, we had accomplished another goal and we looked forward to our Senior hop, class trip, and various other activities at the end of the year.

We had much fun and spent long hours at various activities of our six years of high school. We know that we will never forget G.H.S. and we hope that we, the Class of 1971, have made a lasting impression on those surrounding us.
